

Standing for those in Poverty

By living out the option for the poor we can make real change to the lives of others.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of standing for those in poverty fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked they are.

Building Community

They are Jesus, and what you do for them you do for Him. It is the only way of knowing and believing in our love.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of building community fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked they are.

Caring for our Planet

We are all stewards of creation. It is our duty to look after the earth.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of caring for our planet fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked the ideas are.

Supporting Students and Workers

Work fills us with dignity, it anoints us, strengthening our likeness to God who works.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of supporting students and workers fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked the ideas are.

Promoting Dignity and Equality

Each human being is beautifully and lovingly made in God's image.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of promoting dignity and equality fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked they are.

Building Solidarity and Peace

Peace is much more than the absence of war; it is the fullness of life for all.

All the principles of Catholic social teaching interlink, just like cogs in a wheel. One feeds into the next. Below are some examples of how the principle of building solidarity and peace fits in with the other principles of Catholic social teaching. Have a go at creating your own links between the ideas, and see just how interlinked they are.

